What you'll need

- 2-4 tortillas
- 1 potato
- 1 sharp knife
- 1 pkt unsweetened drink mix (0.15 oz)
- 1 paper towel
- 1 bowl
- nonstick baking spray
- baking sheets

Step 1 ▶ Make a spooky potato stamp.

Step 2 ▶ Pour drink mix into bowl and add 1/8 cup water (we used black cherry flavor). Stir and place a paper towel over the mixture.

Step 3 ▶ Press the spooky potato stamp into the paper towel and then onto the tortillas. We used a combination of white flour and spinach tortillas.

Step 4 ▶ Spritz both sides of each tortilla with baking spray, and cut into quarters.

Step 5 ▶ Place tortilla quarters in a single layer on baking sheets, and bake in an oven preheated to 400 F for 6-7 minutes (watch closely after five minutes to prevent burning).

Step 6 ▶ Serve plain, with fruity salsa, or your favorite sweet dip. (The chips will have a slight sweet/sour taste from the unsweetened drink mix.)
